INTERNATIONAL MEETING OF THE OMCC

CIENFUEGOS – CUBA

17 and 18 June 2016

CONCLUSIONS

Gathered in Cienfuegos-Cuba the four International Groups and the Executive Committee of the OMCC, after two days of work, the present agreed by consensus the following conclusions:

1 – It was with great joy that we met in Cuba, where, in 1998, after the visit of the Pope's Saint John Paul II, took place the first Cursillos in this country, in the diocese of Cienfuegos where since then there have been almost 100 Cursillos and thousands of people had the opportunity to meet with Christ and His Church.

We pray to the Lord that, with everyone's work and the help of the Holy Spirit, quickly Cursillos expand through the rest of this country and its wonderful people.

2 – We welcome with gratitude the contribution come from the Holy See through the Congregation of Doctrine and Faith entitled "Ecclesia Iuvenescit" published on June 14, which that we are committed to study and put in practice their content in our countries.

3 – We note with joy the consolidation of the Movement in many countries and expressed intention to get the CM to countries where it has not yet been possible to achieve. The work of the International Groups provided a remarkable growth, especially on the African continent. We pray to God for the fulfilment of this apostolic and missionary work for one day can be possible an African international group.

4 – We feel the need to update the Movement in the light of the Gospel, of the person and, in this particular moment, tall the Magisterium of Pope Francisco in particular the content of his apostolic exhortations "The Joy of the Gospel" and "The Joy of Love". Also considers essential the acceptance, study and implementation of the redrafting of Fundamental Ideas, defined by statutes approved by the Holy See as «official CM's expression». The study of FI3ed should be considered as a priority in every School of Leaders.

Noted that in general there has been a good acceptance of the content of FI3ed that already has tens of thousands of copies in many languages (Spanish, English, Portuguese, Italian, German, Korean) though his translation to be performed for several other languages.

5 – It was considered essential that all national secretariats to obtain the crucial approval of the respective Bishops ' Conferences, as well as the diocesan secretariats the episcopal approval. It is also essential that all secretariats (diocesan and national) adapt its statutes in accordance with the Statute of the OMCC approved by the Holy see in December 2014. This will enable to put in practice effectively all the responsibilities that the FI3ed and the Statute provide for these organs. In a very clear way was expressed the reaffirmation and recognition of the authority, provided for in number 333 of FI3ed, of the national secretariats properly instituted.

6 – It was recommended that, in the future, the International Groups seek to preempt election of new organs (GIs and Executive Committee) so that the elect have time to prepare and meet the realities that will find.

7 – Was presented the proposal that the in the next World Encounter, to organize by the future Executive Committee, can count with a theme dedicated to the study and approval of functional contents of rollos containing its basic lines.

8 – We thank God for already undertaken processes of canonization of Eduardo Bonnín and Sebastian Gayá, which we believe should be considered by all as an effective means of unity and communion for the entire CM. After a reflection made by Mons. Francisco Coelho about the importance of knowing deeply the thought that guided the pioneers of this Movement, stating that for the unity of the Movement, should be recognized and accepted by all the foundations holding the memory, legacies and thoughts of Eduardo Bonnín Aguiló and Sebastian Gayá, it was agreed to provide consultation to all cursilhistas, through the website of the OMCC, the bibliography and original documents of Eduardo Bonnín, Sebastian Gayá, Mons. Juan Hervás and Juan Capó, as soon as made available by who currently holds it.

9 – Mons. Francisco Coelho put the possibility, well accepted by everyone, to "sit at the same table" with other Christian denominations that use parts of the Cursillos method in its activities, in an Ecumenical Meeting.

10 - Presented the program planned for the V World Ultreya to be held on May 2017, an appeal was made to the participation of cursilhistas from all over the world, and suggested that those who cannot travel to Portugal, to organize on the May 6th, in their communities, Ultreias or Journeys of prayer and reflection in true spirit of communion with the brothers present at Fatima.

11 – A thank you to the Diocese of Cienfuegos in a special way in the person of its Bishop Mons. Domingo and to António González for all work and spirit of hospitality shown, which provided the realization of this international meeting.
